

Florida State University COACHE Survey Results | Spring 2018

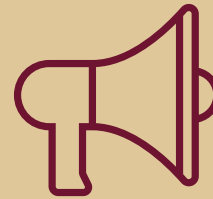

- FSU faculty identified their colleagues as the best thing about FSU
- 94% would recommend their department to other faculty
- 77% find FSU a very good place to work

Shared sense of purpose, trust in university governance, and positive views of senior leadership set us apart from our peers and the national cohort.

Engagement with and support for the mission of the university

- 69% are satisfied or very satisfied with the President's priorities
- 69% view shared governance at FSU as effective
- 67% feel a shared responsibility between faculty and administration

University support for faculty research and teaching

- 90% report satisfaction with their research autonomy
- 91% feel they have appropriate control over what they teach
- 76% are satisfied or very satisfied with library resources

Diversity and Inclusion

- 76% say their colleagues are committed to diversity and inclusion
- 71% report that there is visible leadership to support diversity and inclusion
- 68% feel that they fit well at FSU

Positive and Supportive Work Environment

- 78% view their department as collegial
- 87% are satisfied or very satisfied with health benefits
- 70% feel their colleagues support work/life balance

Areas in which we will continue working:

Facilitate interdisciplinary work | Mentor pre-tenured faculty
Enhance support for teaching | Support associate professors

fsu.edu/faculty